PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

17 June 2021

I loved the presentation Dr Justin Coulson delivered to parents on Tuesday night. It was honest, engaging and full of straight forward practical advice. As parents, we love to see our children happy, and when they are not – our instinct is to step straight in and fix it. This however must be tempered with the need to let them experience life and to learn from it. He recommended to us a graduating speech that US Supreme Court Justice John Roberts delivered at his own son's graduation. A little of it follows and it is worth consideration.

From time to time in the years to come, I hope you will be treated unfairly, so that you will come to know the value of justice. I hope that you will suffer betrayal because that will teach you the importance of loyalty. Sorry to say, but I hope you will be lonely from time to time so that you don't take friends for granted. I wish you bad luck, again, from time to time so that you will be conscious of the role of chance in life and understand that your success is not completely deserved and that the failure of others is not completely deserved either. And when you lose, as you will from time to time, I hope every now and then, your opponent will gloat over your failure. It is a way for you to understand the importance of sportsmanship. I hope you'll be ignored so you know the importance of listening to others, and I hope you will have just enough pain to learn compassion. Whether I wish these things or not, they're going to happen. And whether you benefit from them or not will depend upon your ability to see the message in your misfortunes.

We hope to see many of you at the upcoming Athletics events next week and hope you have an amazing time with your families over the holidays.
